Pupil Privacy Rights: Student Surveys

Policy

It is the intent of the Marlboro School Board to comply with the provisions of the federal Pupil Privacy Rights Amendment (PPRA) governing the administration of certain student surveys, analyses or evaluations funded in whole or in part by the U.S. Department of Education.

Definitions. As used in this policy, the following terms shall mean:

“Personal information” means individually identifiable information including a student’s or parent’s name, address, telephone number, or social security number.

“Instructional material” means instructional content that is provided to a student, regardless of format. It does not include tests or academic assessments.

“Parent” means a natural or adoptive parent, a legal guardian or other person standing in loco parentis (such as a grandparent or stepparent with whom the child lives, or a person who is legally responsible for the welfare of a child).

Student Rights

The rights provided to parents under the Pupil Rights Amendment and this policy transfer to the student when the students turns 18 years old, or is an emancipated minor under applicable Vermont law.

Policy

- 1) No student shall be required, without parental consent, to take part in a survey, analysis, or evaluation funded by the U.S. Department of Education that reveals information concerning:
 - a) political affiliations or beliefs of a student or a student’s parents;
 - b) mental or psychosocial problems of a student or student’s family;
 - c) sex behavior or attitudes;
 - d) illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating and demeaning behavior;
 - e) critical appraisals of other individuals with whom student respondents have close family relationships;
 - f) legally recognized privileged or analogous relationships, such as those of lawyers, physicians or members of the clergy;

- g) income (other than that required by law to determine eligibility for participation in a program for receiving financial assistance under such program; or
 - h) religious practices, affiliations, or beliefs of the student or the student's parents.
- 2) Parents shall have the right to inspect any survey created by a third party before the survey is administered or distributed to a student. Requests for inspection shall be in writing, and shall be made in sufficient time to allow a response at least two weeks in advance of any survey to be given.
- 3) Parents shall be notified at least annually, at the beginning of the school year or when enrolling students for the first time in district schools, of this policy. The notification shall explain that parents/guardians or students 18 years of age or older, have the right to "opt out" of the following activities:
 - a) the collection, disclosure and use of personal information gathered from students for purpose of marketing or selling that information. This does not apply to the collection, disclosure, or use of personal information collected from students for the exclusive purpose of developing, evaluating, or providing educational services for, or to students.
 - b) the administration of any survey not funded in whole or part by the U.S. Department of Education that includes the eight subject areas listed in paragraph 1 above.
- 4) In addition parents shall be notified, through U.S. Mail, e-mail or other direct means, at least annually at the start of each school year of the specific or approximate dates of any activities described in subparagraphs 1-3 above, and shall be provided an opportunity to opt out of participation in those activities.
- 5) Parents shall have the right to inspect, upon request, any instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum.
- 6) The superintendent or his or her designee shall develop administrative procedures as required to ensure implementation of this policy.
