

Spring Session: April 24 - June 8, 2017
REGISTRATION IS DUE Friday 4/14/17

Day and Dates	Activity	Instructor(s)
Mondays 4/24 5/1 5/8 5/15 5/22 5/5	Fairy House Builders  open to all grades Spring is the time that fairies come out to play after the long winter - they need us! We'll be exploring the forest for places fairies already live, build and leave gifts for them, and make a fairy house to take home. Learn how to make an acorn tea set, fairy houses out of old bottles, and mini tents and furniture.	Starcie Grout
	Games Galore  open to all grades Indoor board games in bad weather (we'll invent our own, too!), frisbee, hacky sack, stilts, noodle battles, and more outside in good weather. We'll learn some international games, to boot. Let's play!	Deb Ayer
	Maker's Club  best for grades 3+ Take your chain-reaction toppling ideas to the limit. We'll tinker and build with all manner of materials to create weird and wonderful domino-effect machines and imagination-scapes.	Eric Matt
Tuesdays 4/25 5/2 5/9 5/16 5/23 5/30 6/6	Forest Guardians  for grades 3-6 An after school program with Vermont Wilderness School weaves together scout awareness games, physical dexterity and Martial Arts based games and challenges, and survival skills like making scout fires. All done with an ethic of caring for the natural world, other people, and self.	Amy Hyatt  of the Vermont  Wilderness School
	Writer's Clubhouse  best for grades 3+ Interview supernatural creatures, write pet vacation brochures, learn the basics of interstellar diplomacy in prep for alien first contact, go to spy school, rewrite tired fairy tales, and more. We'll be publishing our work, too, so get your pen name ready.	Deb Ayer  &amp;  Mae Star Salinsky
	Reminder: Girls on the Run  for 3-6 grades  Ends on Saturday, May 20 with a 5K After you're done with this course, join us (for ½ price) at the Writer's Clubhouse.	Robyn Manning,  at the Marlboro  College Campus

Wednesdays 4/26 5/3 5/10 5/17 5/24 5/31 6/7	Dance and Tumble Club for grades 3-6 Do you like to dance? Are you a gymnast? Ever thought about Zumba? Well, at Dance and Tumble Club, we'll be doing these and so much more! We'll work on partner stunts, hoop, jazz and modern dance, acrobatics, zumba fitness and strength training. This is all set to the music that moves YOU.	Carie Kowalski
	Story Glory best for K-2 Each day we'll listen to a fabulous picture book, then make art and play games based on the story. A great way to wind down an afternoon. Let's read!	Deb Ayer
	Documentary Film Production for grades 5-8, limited to 8 students We'll continue interviewing and editing for the ongoing "Working in Marlboro" documentary traveling around town and to use equipment at Marlboro College.	David Holzapfel & Gordon Morse
	Tie Dye and Fabric Design great for every age This is one not to miss! We'll make pillows and clothing items using marbling techniques, stencils, stamps, paint, tie-dyeing, felting, and duct-tape (YES!). Cloth and tees will be donated, so all you need to bring is your limitless imagination.	Paula Lavendar
Thursdays 4/27 4/4 4/11 4/18 4/25 6/1 6/8	Chef Skills for grades 6-8, limited to 6 students As you may have noticed, not all pie is created equal. Learn how to make truly delicious dishes under the leadership of our own Brian Newcomb, Marlboro's chef. He'll teach you the tools, chemistry, and intuition of great cooking, as well as help you explore how flavors work together to create something you want to put in your mouth.	Brian Newcomb
	Talk to the Animals open to all grades, limited to 8 students See the world through animal eyes by learning how they communicate, think, and feel. Our neighbor Nicole Birkholzer is an animal communication expert, and she'll be teaching us what she knows via drawing, writing, and of course interacting with animals. She'll visit us at school and we'll visit her Marlboro home to meet her dog, cats, horses, and goats.	Nicole Birkholzer and Deb Ayer
	Reminder: Girls on the Run for 3-6 grades Ends on Saturday, May 20 with a 5K After you're done with this course, join us (for ½ price) at Tie Dye and Fabric Design.	Robyn Manning at the Marlboro College Campus

L'AFTER Financial Assistance Sheet

If you would like financial assistance for L'AFTER fees, please follow these steps to determine your payment rate:

1. Use the attached Income Eligibility Guidelines to determine if your family qualifies for free or reduced lunch. If so, be sure to submit a Free/Reduced Application to the school office so that you can access all the benefits for your family, and to help the school access funding. (Inquire at the front office if you need a form.)
- If you qualify for Free school lunch, your L'AFTER fees will be at a 10% rate.
  - If you qualify for Reduced school lunch, your L'AFTER fees will be at a 50% rate.
  - If your income is above the limit for Free/Reduced eligibility, you may still request financial assistance to pay at the 75% level.
